

ALL CUSTOMS LOST SIGHT OF BY THE TRIP

Journey To Panama Is Unheard Of In Annals Of History.

ARRANGEMENTS ARE COMPLETED

Everything Possible Being Done To Make Present Journey A Memorable One For Panama And The President.

FACTS ABOUT THE PRESIDENT'S TRIP.
For the first time in history the President of the United States will set foot on foreign soil, and be the guest of a foreign ruler at dinner.
The voyage is made on the magnificent battleship Louisiana, conveyed by her sister ships the Tennessee and the Washington.
The trip is expected to occupy six days each way.
It is planned to spend four days on the isthmus of Panama and one day in Porto Rico.
Altogether the party will sail the seas and the Potomac river to the extent of 4317 miles.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Washington, D. C., Nov. 8.—With cheers and good wishes resounding at the Washington navy yard, President and Mrs. Roosevelt and other members of their party this afternoon boarded the naval yacht Mayflower and began the first stage of the voyage to Porto Rico, and Panama. Among those at the landing to see the party off were many friends of the Roosevelt family, including several members of the cabinet and their families.
The Mayflower conveys the party to a point off the mouth of the Rappahannock river, where the magnificent battleship Louisiana awaits them. Immediately the President and his party boarded the Louisiana, which was put to sea, conveyed by her sister ships the Washington and the Tennessee.

The presidential quarters on the Louisiana are situated at and consist of seven staterooms and three bathrooms. The large cabin intended for the occupancy of a flag officer has been converted into a large dining and reception room. The chief of staff's cabin is to be used as a sitting room, while the space around the after turret has been specially prepared as a sort of general sitting room, while the space around the after turret has been specially prepared as a sort of general sitting room for the President and Mrs. Roosevelt, Dr. Rixey, Secretary Latta and other members of the party. The admiral's stateroom is to be occupied by President Roosevelt, while the captain's headquarters have been set aside for the use of Mrs. Roosevelt. During the journey Captain Couden of the Louisiana will occupy the emergency cabin on the bridge, while the other officers will be located in quarters below.

The sole purpose of the President in going to Panama is to familiarize himself with the conditions on the isthmus as they relate to the construction of the isthmian canal. The stop at San Juan is to be merely a courtesy visit designed to show the interest of the President and the nation in Porto Rico and its welfare. Four days meeting and the largest in point of attendance that it has ever held. The beekeepers will spend three days discussing everything relating to honey and bee culture and will be addressed by a number of experts. Between business sessions they will enjoy some unique entertainment provided for them by the Texas branch of the association.

EPISCOPAL MISSIONARY CONFERENCE COMES TO END

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Columbia, S. C., Nov. 8.—Though this was the third and final day of the big Episcopal missionary conference there was no lack of interest apparent on the part of the many participants. The churchmen and others interested in the conference were up betimes this morning for the celebration of holy communion. At the regular forenoon session in Craven hall the general topic of discussion was: "The Board of Missions and the Church in the Fourth Department: How They Can Mutually Help." Needs and opportunities were discussed this afternoon. Prominent among the speakers heard during the day were Bishop Wood of Florida, Rev. P. H. Whaley, D. D., of Pensacola, Rev. F. A. Brown of Savannah, Capt. W. N. Hawks of Atlanta, Hon. Joseph F. Johnston of Birmingham, and John W. Wood, corresponding secretary of the board of missions, New York city.

COLLEGIATE ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION MEETING

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Chicago, Nov. 8.—Instructors and graduates of more than a score of colleges, coeducational or for women, attended the opening session today of the annual convention of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae. New England, the south and the Pacific coast, as well as the institutions of the middle west, were represented. The association will remain in session three days. College entrance requirements, the relation of the association to the public schools and the co-operation of the association with the women's clubs in education are among the subjects to receive attention.

UNIFORM BILL OF LANDING DISCUSSED

May Be Adopted by Railways of Country—Question of Liability in Way.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Chicago, Nov. 8.—Representatives of shippers' associations throughout the country met here today in conference with the railroad regarding the adoption of a uniform bill of lading. An agreement has already been reached regarding the liability of the initial carrier for damages to freight and also in regard to making bills of lading negotiable on request. The principal point now to be settled is whether the railroads can collect 20 per cent in addition to their regular rates if they assume any liability for loss or damage to freight. The shippers contend that the common law compels them to assume such liability in all cases, and that the railroads cannot legally maintain more than one set of published rates. If the present conference cannot reach an agreement on this point the matter probably will be referred to the interstate commerce commission.

DEMOCRATS MADE GREAT GAINS IN IOWA SENATE

Elected Ten Members--One Republican Congressional Candidate Beaten--Cummins' Plurality 20,000.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 8.—Iowa's election is a question of republican plurality only. All the indications point to a plurality of about 20,000 for Cummins with the chance the rest of the state officers will run a little above that. The democrats made biggest gains in the senate where they elected ten members giving them four seats more than the republicans, whereas at the last election they had only six seats.

E. W. Hoch.

Probably Elected Governor of Kansas. Contrary to Indications of Yesterday election they had but eight. They elected thirty-three members of the House, where last session they had twenty-two. The final returns show Congressman Lacey has been defeated in the sixth district by D. W. Hamilton, a democrat. In the first and second districts heretofore in doubt, the republicans have elected their candidates. Missouri Democratic by 6,000. St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 8.—Unofficial returns from 105 of the 114 counties show that Governor Hoch had a plurality of 4,100.

COUNTERFEITER ARRESTED WHILE MAKING BOGUS COIN

Was Manufacturing Half Dollars In Fashionable Flat In Milwaukee...Passed Five Thousand In Chicago.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 8.—George Howard, alias George Con. of Cleveland, Ohio, was arrested in a fashionable flat today with a complete counterfeiting outfit running. He said he has the best outfit in the country, electricity being used, and has passed 5,000 bad half dollars in Chicago alone. He says that town is the easiest. In all he admitted passing thousands of other coins in all parts of the east and northwest. He stated Milwaukee is the best place to work from, although he passes but little counterfeit money here.

RIPPING OF MITTEN CHEATED SHREDDER

Fred Bahling of Hanover Escaped Losing Arm in Rollers of Corn Cutting Machine.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Hanover, Nov. 8.—Fred Bahling had a narrow escape Monday while feeding Charles Hupel's shredder which might have cost him an arm. An ear of corn lodged under a belt near the snapping rollers and in his attempt to release it got his mitten caught in the rollers. Luckily his mitten ripped letting his hand free. Edward G. Brown has built an addition onto his barn. The dance will be held Thanksgiving evening, Nov. 28, instead of the night mentioned in Wednesday's Gazette.

..Forty Years Ago..

Janesville Daily Gazette, Thursday, November 5, 1868.—Arrest of Boys in the Second Ward—A number of boys in the second ward have been arrested for throwing stones at and abusing the woman who sweeps out the school building. One of the boys arrested is a hard case and the sooner he is sent to the reform school the better it will be for himself and community.

Heroic—On Tuesday last Mr. Harvey Lee of this city, was out duck-hunting in a boat on Rock river, with his two boys aged 11 and 13 years. By some misadventure as he fired the gun, the boat was upset and all went into the river. The oldest boy, 13, though weighed down with heavy boots, swam ashore, but Mr. L. heaved overboard, as did also the younger boy. The lad who had reached the shore seeing the condition of things plunged into the water again and reached his brother just as he was disappearing the third time, seized hold of him and got him safe to land, and Mr. L. also managed to save himself with the aid of his son. Thus, two lives were saved by the efforts of this lad of thirteen years. Heroes are made of such stuff as enters into the composition of this boy. If the energies of his life are wisely directed he will make his mark in the world.

Prevent Headache

We want you to know that Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills prevent as well as relieve headache, and that they leave no bad after-effects. We assure you that if taken when you first discover indications of an attack, they will drive it away, and thus not only save you the misery and distress, but the weakening influence of pain upon your system. Used in this way the attacks become less frequent, and eventually entirely disappear. They relieve pain by strengthening the nerves, and overcoming the turbulent, excited condition, which is the cause of pain.

We used Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills in our family for five years, and I would not like to do without them. Before I found this remedy I would have spells of sick headache so severe that I would be prostrated for as many as 48 hours at a time. The Anti-Pain Pills stop the pain in a few minutes. I have a great deal of pain around the head, and the Anti-Pain Pills also relieve that. Now I can work and they stop it right then. I also notice that I do not have these spells nearly so frequently as formerly.

MRS. ROSA A. CURRIER, Kalamazoo, Mich.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first package will benefit. If it fails, he will return your money. The pills are in handy tablet form, convenient and economical. Begin to use this remedy today. The pills will be found in the following places:

REPRIMANDS BUREAU CHIEF

PRESIDENT ACTS IN FAVOR OF WEATHER OFFICE PRINTER.

Transfer for Alleged Refusal to Pay Assessments to Union Held Not for Good of Service.

Washington, Nov. 8.—President Roosevelt has directed that a reprimand be administered to Willis L. Moore, chief of the weather bureau, for his action in the case of a printer named Cooper in his office who had been expelled from the Typographical union for not paying his strike assessments.

Mr. Moore, it is alleged, urged Cooper on two occasions to pay his assessments, but the latter refused and he was expelled from the union. Following this Cooper was transferred to New Orleans, and he claimed that this action on the part of Mr. Moore was intended as a punishment for him for not complying with the demands of the Typographical union.

The matter was referred to the civil service commission which, without reporting on the question of whether or not Cooper's transfer was intended as a punishment, held that Mr. Moore's action in urging the payment of the strike assessments was improper. Under the circumstances, the commission expressed the opinion that Cooper's transfer would not be for the good of the service as this would give the impression that it was intended as a punishment.

Cooper, accordingly, will be reinstated in his former position in the weather bureau in Washington and the reprimand to Mr. Moore will be at the discretion of the president be administered by the secretary of agriculture.

NEW CONGRESSMAN KILLS MAN

Representative-elect Ends Life of His Former Associate.

Baton Rouge, La., Nov. 8.—Democratic Congressman-elect Judge George R. Favrot, Wednesday evening, shot and instantly killed his lifelong associate and former schoolmate, Dr. H. H. Aldrich, one of the best known citizens of Baton Rouge. While hundreds of persons were near the scene of the shooting none knew what happened between the two men. Judge Favrot refused to talk beyond letting it be known that the matter was a private quarrel.

Judge Favrot is 38 years old, and is regarded as one of the most brilliant young men of Louisiana. In the recent Democratic primaries he defeated for the nomination S. M. Robertson, who had been a representative in congress for 20 years.

Before the shooting Judge Favrot had been walking along the street chatting with friends, but left the party opposite the hotel and entered the doors of the Raymond building. Almost instantly those outside heard three shots. Judge Favrot emerged from the building with a revolver in his hand.

Dr. Aldrich was found near the entrance with two bullet holes in his neck. In a front pocket of his trousers there was found a revolver which apparently had not been fired.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a "true disease." We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nervous sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach trouble, alone brought that success to the stomach which alone brought that success to the stomach.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend it.

THE AFTERMATH

There are some lessons growing out of last Tuesday's election which are well worth considering, for they point to dangers that lie so close to the surface as to be significant.

The fact is generally conceded that Hearst owes his defeat in New York to the vigorous attack of Secretary Root, but the support he commanded is a menace to the country. His majority in Greater New York was not a normal democratic majority, for he only carried the city by 65,000, when he was entitled to at least 25,000 more.

This loss, however, was made good in the manufacturing cities of the state, showing that the labor vote was with him. He carried Buffalo and many other smaller cities.

The socialist ticket in Milwaukee received over 18,000 votes, 6,000 more than was cast for the democratic ticket. When the returns are all in and the vote thoroughly analyzed it will be found that the socialist party has made heavy gains in all parts of the country.

This, in itself, is not occasion for alarm, because the socialists, as a party, will never secure control of the national government.

The foe is more insidious than the for Hearstism, Bryanism, La Folletteism, and a number of otherisms are just now popular and they are fostered and inspired by appeals to ignorance and prejudice.

The Saturday Evening Post and Collier's, as well as a number of leading magazines, are saturated with the same damnable doctrine, and they operate in the field of intelligence, stirring up class hatred with relentless hand.

The defeat of Hearst was a victory, for Hughes' majority should have been at least a quarter of a million, and would have been but for the seeds of socialism and unrest which have taken deep hold in the Empire state.

Hearst is the man and Hearstism the issue of the next national campaign. This is not a pessimistic outlook, but a simple statement of the situation as it appears to every thoughtful mind.

The nation is confronted with the problem of the ability to govern itself, and it is a most serious problem. Capital, the best friend that labor has, is now considered its worst enemy. Confiscation of property under one pretext or another is advocated from the platform and endorsed by the yellow journals and magazines of the country.

The spirit of unrest is general and widespread, and it is not confined to the ignorant classes. "Men, not measures," is a popular fallacy, and party foundations were never more insecure than today.

Unless a radical change of sentiment is evidenced before the campaign of 1908, it may be necessary for the sober, conservative element of the country to get together on common ground to save the nation from humiliation and defeat.

The Chicago Chronicle, in speaking of Hearst and New York, says: "He has shown that it is no obstacle to such an enterprise that he has been a man without the usual testimonials to his moral purity nor that his newspapers are believed to have contributed to the assassination of President McKinley; nor that he has used them almost exclusively for the purpose of exciting sedition and arraying maliciously and rancorously the poor against the rich. In spite of all this he has been able, one may say by mechanical means, to create such a following as to make himself a menace to the stability of American institutions."

"What the country hoped for from New York was not a hairbreadth escape but a decisive and overwhelming majority for decency and good government, and really, there does not seem to have been any good reason why this outcome of the election was not secured."

There was from the first a total misconception among the republicans of New York of the nature of the contest. William R. Hearst should have been treated as a poisonous reptile and the campaign against him should have been fierce and uncompromising. Instead of that his respectability was conceded and his clowds were answered with paper wads.

"The only manly blow that was struck for Hughes was struck by Secretary Root, speaking for President Roosevelt. When he delivered that blow the pirate craft shivered from stem to stern. Without that blow all would have been lost and if there had been more like it the result would have been the complete overthrow and destruction of the Hearst propaganda.

"As a natural result of the incredible folly and timidity of New York republicans we may now look forward to two years more of political violence, with almost a certainty that at the end of that time the whole country will be rocked with a Hearst presidential campaign of unexampled fury."

"No mere defeat like that of yesterday will check the career of a man who finds in politics not only a new and exhilarating sport on which to lavish his unearned millions, but in the hands of craftier men, an unfailing advertisement for his degrading and demoralizing business enterprises."

New York has just saved itself from a Hearst administration, but the probability is that by its halfheartedness it has inflicted upon the country calamities which no human foresight can now measure.

LA FOLLETTE'S TREACHERY

Hearst loses in New York, but Hearst's imitator, disciple and admirer achieves a certain success in Wisconsin, says the Chicago Chronicle.

Robert M. La Follette, elected to the United States senate by republican votes, has succeeded not in forwarding his own fortunes but in accomplishing the defeat of certain republican candidates who do not wear his collar.

In this Mr. La Follette is the faithful pupil of his New York Preceptor. Whom Hearst can not command he immediately seeks to destroy. The Hearst knife is at the back of any man who manifests manliness and independence. Hearst does not want supporters but serfs. So with La Follette.

Older, better, faithfuler republicans than Senator La Follette, guilty of no crime save that of preferring other leadership than that of the junior senator, have been pursued and hounded throughout the campaign by the man who professes to be the leader of the republican party in Wisconsin.

Not democrats but republicans have been the objects of Senator La Follette's enmity and antagonism. He boasts that he has beaten some of them. He hoped to beat all of them who did not acknowledge themselves his servants.

In all this he is following his model, Hearst, who brooks no personal independence among his followers. Like Hearst, Mr. La Follette turns upon the party of which he is ostensibly a member and does his best to destroy and defeat it.

Senator La Follette is so thoroughly Hearstian and so utterly unrepentant that he ought to come out boldly and declare his allegiance to Hearst and his renunciation of fealty to the republican party. If he does not do so of his own volition the republicans of Wisconsin will have to take him by the neck and thrust him into the street, where he will be free to preach and practice Hearstism if he can find any followers to sustain him.

It is self-evident that the Wisconsin republicans can not continue to harbor a traitor who makes no secret of his purpose to assassinate their organization as he has just been finding their candidates.

This is plain talk from the best republican paper in Chicago, and every word is true. Congressman Babcock, State Senator Beach, and other defeated republican candidate in the state, were targets for the mud guns of the vindictive junior senator, during the campaign, and if there is any glory in their defeat, he is entitled to a share.

If the same policy had been pursued by the conservative element of the party the entire state ticket would have been defeated and factional strife continued indefinitely.

The republican party has a right to question the republicanism of a United States Senator, who deliberately and persistently seeks to destroy the party which has honored him.

La Follette is in sympathy with Bryan, and Bryan with Hearst. Three of a kind, and equally dangerous as leaders. The former is the only one of the three who makes any claim to republicanism, and he is a disgrace to the party.

He voted with the democrats in the senate all last winter, and defended his course by claiming to be the only republican in the Upper House who was right. The party can well afford to get along without him, and should lose no time in lining him up where he belongs.

It will do him good to herd by himself for a while, and enjoy to the limit the association of the much lauded independent voters, with a few choice muck raking spirits on the side.

Between Hearst and Bryan, the democratic party is up against it good and proper. The conservative element of the party is out and injured. Republicanism will maintain its organization in spite of La Folletteism and muck-rake criticism.

Rock County republicans were loyal to the party, and the same spirit was manifest throughout the state, with few exceptions. The day of factional strife is over and the party will present a solid front in 1908.

Blanchard received one vote in the city of Edgerton, and that was said to have been cast by the enterprising citizen who refused to sign a petition asking for a new passenger station.

Babcock says he has nothing to say about his defeat for congress, but the Free Press naively puts it as one of the results of La Follette's speeches for reform.

Coonan managed to pull up close to the head of the ticket in spite of the fact that the junior senator was suspicious of him.

Democracy the country over is disrupted by the reformers. Why can they not all get together in one party and have it out?

Milwaukee must concede that the social democratic party is one which must be seriously considered.

Hearst was defeated, but his judges won out and so did the rest of the democratic state ticket.

Now that the election is over it will be time to start talking for the Thanksgiving turkeys.

The man who lost and the man who won their election bets feel differently strange to say.

The Good Roads problem is one worth considering by the farmers and citizens generally.

Wisconsin is again in line with an old time republican majority.

Cummins won in Iowa despite adverse returns at first.

Peoria Herald-Transcript: To those young ladies who are disgracing the question: "What shall we do with our parents?" We would respectfully suggest that they hand them an occasional jolly. This will help a whole lot when the millinery bills come in.

Sending Chickens Home to Roost.

Superior Telegram: The Great Northern Railway company has notified the government that it will not carry soldiers at the special rates given heretofore. It is evidently intended to give Uncle Sam a dose of his own rate bill, and regular prices are to be charged hereafter.

Likes Democracy—in Books.

Chicago News: J. Pierpont Morgan has collected manuscripts and private letters of Bobbie Burns at a cost of $200,000. Mr. Morgan, being quite satisfied with himself, evidently does not realize that were Bobbie Burns alive today one of his chief delights would be to have fun with Mr. Morgan and his kind.

A New Party All by Himself.

Chicago Chronicle: From Wisconsin comes the statement that Senator La Follette is "hinting" at a new party. "Hinting" is good. It has been known of all men for the last three years that Mr. La Follette is himself, a new party, all others being pluto-cratic, corrupt and oppressive to the people. There is nothing new about it.

Peddlers' Fee Question Settled.

Superior Telegram: In Superior two or three years ago there was a considerable amount of discussion about the power of the city in the matter of the license fee of peddlers and no definite conclusion has ever been reached. Last Saturday Attorney General Sturdevant decided that cities can impose an additional fee to that imposed by the state.

Ready to Repudiate This "Moses."

Wausau Herald: When John C. Spooner referred to La Follette last night as a "self-appointed Moses," seeking to impress people with the idea that through himself alone the country could be saved, every republican in the house, nearly applauded, showing that they for whom La Follette worked so hard and long, now have forgotten him and are now his enemies.

La Follette's "Campaign."

Chicago Chronicle: Whether the republicans of Wisconsin win or lose today's election they will have to clean house before they can hope to regain their old-time prestige.

In other words they will have to put Robert M. La Follette out of the party instead of permitting him to attempt its destruction from within. Self-preservation is a right which inheres in political parties as in individuals. Self-preservation dictates that the republicans shall distrust Senator La Follette forth from among them. He can find congenial company among the democrats or with William R. Hearst. Whatever else he may be, he is not a republican.

During the last week of the campaign Mr. La Follette, ostensibly campaigning as a republican, ignored all the republican state candidates except the head of the ticket, whom he damned with faint praise. He made a personal attack upon a republican candidate for state senator and advised his republican hearers to vote for the democratic nominee. Two days in succession he spoke against the republican candidate for district attorney of Milwaukee, counseling his hearers to support a bolting republican who was denied the nomination. The rest of his "republican" campaigning has been of the same kind.

Oh, billing and cooing is all very nice,

At those who have tried it declare,

And often it leads to a laudable splice

Without any aid from her.

The cooing agreed to,

So what should it lead to?

But something that's bound to occur?

Alone in the twilight when no one is near

Except the mosquitoes and bugs,

He whispers a tale in her delicate ear

And punctuates often with hugs,

And as he grows bolder

She leans on his shoulder,

A wistful, longing sigh:

It's folly to alter,

A Philadelphia expert who may or may not know what he is talking about claims that the charming members of the female sex cease to be girls at the immature age of thirty-five and straightway become women.

This in some parts of the country would be regarded as a base slander. While some enterprising ladies are grandmothers at that age, yet there are others who, while they do not play with dolls, still insist that they are girls and they don't care who knows it.

There is no arbitrary rule that may be made to apply in all cases. Much depends on temperament and the charity of the neighbors. But still, whose business is it anyway if a girl wants to be a girl at fifty? No man of refinement would ask her if she got searsick coming over in the Mayflower, even though he wanted to know. The Philadelphia expert might have been much better business.

Nothing to Fear.

"I think you said that he's a very brainy young man."

"Oh, yes, but he never lets that annoy people when he is in company."

"Oh, yes, there is."

"What is it?"

"His habit of doing nothing."

GOOD ROADS MEN TO MEET TUESDAY

ORGANIZATION WILL AT THAT TIME BE PERFECTED.

MUCH INTEREST IS SHOWN

Business of Importance Will Come up and a Large Attendance is Expected.

Interest in the good roads movement in Rock county has not abated since the last meeting of the association on Monday, October 15th. In fact the Tuesday meeting of next week promises to be well attended by farmers and business men from all parts of the county. The meetings will be held in the court house and as the county board is in session at this time promise to be resultful of large results.

All Over the State.

The good roads movement has been spreading all over the state. It will mean in time a network of excellent roads from one end of the state to the other and the work of pushing this idea to completion is being left to county organizations. At the initial meeting on Monday, October 15th, the following officers were selected and these officers have been doing much to excite interest in their respective communities:

President—Capt. Pliny Norcross, Janesville.

1st. V. Pres.—Fred W. Coon, Edgerton.

2d. V. Pres.—Simon Smith, Beloit.

Secretary—F. L. Clemens, Janesville.

Treasurer—John A. Paul, Milton Junction.

The above named officers are the executive committee. Each township as a vice president, as follows: Avalon, John Highland, Beloit, John R. Jones; Bradford, W. J. Jones; Center, W. O. Howell; Clinton, S. S. Jones; Fulton, John Sherman; Harmony, F. M. Roach; Janesville, Charles Schumacher; Johnson, W. S. Pomeroy; La Prairie, W. Frost; Lima, W. Boyd; Magnolia, W. B. Andrews; Milton, Ezra Goodrich; Newark, B. E. Hansen; Plymouth, M. Ehringer; Porter, John Collins; Rock, J. A. Gunn; Turtle, J. B. Walker; Union, Ira Jones.

Complete Enrollment.

The enrollment of charter members at the first meeting includes representative men from nearly every part of the county and some even from beyond the limits of Rock. The full list, giving only postoffice addresses of different sections and communities represented:

Robert S. Denison, Janesville; John Hyland, E. H. Storck, Durand; H. H. Bliss, Janesville; Perry C. Wilder, Evansville; Fred W. Coon, Edgerton; Robert Barless, H. S. McGiffin, Janesville; W. C. WRECK ON CROSSING BLOCKED BOTH LINES

Two Stock Cars Derailed Last Night—Midnight Flyer Backed to Afton and Sent Over Old Line.

Two cars of stock in a freight train coming in off the Evansville cutoff of the North-Western road were derailed on the crossing of the St. Paul line near the intersection of North River street about eleven o'clock last night and as a result traffic on both roads was blocked for several hours. The cars came from the Great Northern road and were loaded with Montana cattle for the Chicago stock yards. Both trucks on each car left the tracks and had not the cars been held by their couplings they would very likely have rolled down the embankment. The wrecking crew was called out and worked until four o'clock this morning in putting the cars back on the rails and repairing the damage to the tracks and frogs. One car was so damaged that it was necessary to transfer the stock into a North-Western car and leave the damaged one here for repairs. Meanwhile no trains came into the city from the north or left in that direction. The two sections of the North-Western midnight flyer had to be backed down to Afton, after reaching Janesville, and then sent to Evansville over the old line through Hanover, Footville and Magnolia. Two stock trains on the St. Paul road were held on the bridge for several hours.

MORDECAI SAYLES OF EVANSVILLE, IS DEAD

Deceased Celebrated His Ninetieth Birthday Last January—Had 20 Great-Grandchildren.

Mordecai Sayles, one of the oldest and most respected residents of Evansville, died at an early hour Wednesday morning. Deceased was born Jan. 19, 1846, in West Bloomfield, Ontario county, New York. He came to Wisconsin in 1845, locating in Darlen, Walworth county. In 1868 he moved to Magnolia township. His first wife was Miss Lucy F. Beebe of New York, whom he married March 29, 1857, and who died May 21, 1868. He was married Sept. 8, 1869, to Miss Nancy Wadsworth, who survives him. They were eight children by the first wife and three by the second, and thirty grandchildren and twenty great-grandchildren are still living. The family joined in a celebration of Mr. Sayles' ninetieth birthday last January. Deceased had been in failing health for some time. The funeral is to be held tomorrow.

THIRTY-BUNK CARS STORED NEAR HERE

Railroad Men Say They Will Accommodate Builders of New North-Western Yards.

Thirty bunk cars have been brought to Janesville and stored for the winter in the North-Western railway company's gravel pit north of the city. Railroad men say that this means some building will be done in this vicinity as soon as spring opens and, of course, they believe work on the new freight yards will be started then. The bunk cars came here from Bain, Wisconsin, where they were used this summer while the extension from Lake Bluff to Bain Junction was being constructed.

WAS ARRESTED FOR KICKING HORSES

Herman Johns of Milton Had a Nip of Liquid Fire and Forgot How to Drive.

Because he kicked a pair of colts, which, frightened by the steam boiler and a street car, had run away, over-turned the rig, and killed the occupants in the back, Herman Johns of Milton was arrested on South Main street late yesterday afternoon and spent the night in the lock-up. He was released this morning. Johns told the police that he had imbibed but a very little when a friend came along and urged him to have a nip from a bottle. The draught made him "feel queer" and he lost control of the team.

SELF INTEREST

Our bank is not only safe but it is kept safe by the careful vigilance of the active management. Most banks have good men as officers or directors but it frequently happens that the very men on whom the public depends for safe management do not hold enough stock to have a vital personal interest in the affairs of the bank. There is no interest like self-interest and one of the greatest safeguards that can be thrown around a bank and that which is commonly overlooked is the personal acquisition of large holdings of the bank's stock by the individual officers and directors. Our officers and directors own two-thirds of the stock in this bank.

CHAPTER VIII.

Two days after the events just related Emily Remsen's maid announced that she had just received news that her mother was very ill, and that she had been notified to go to her at once. Her mother, she said, lived in Elizabeth, N. J. She wished to go at the earliest possible moment, and begged that her cousin Lucette should be allowed to attend to her duties till her return, which she hoped would be in a very few days. Asked if her cousin was competent, she said yes, and especially apt at arranging the hair, having served an apprenticeship with a French hairdresser. Indeed the girl's real name was Lucy, but she had changed it to Lucette to pretend that, being French, she was necessarily a good maid.

In Miss Remsen's mind this changing of her name was nothing in the girl's favor, but as her own maid was thus suddenly taken from her, and as this other was offered at once, she agreed to the proposal.

Lucette arrived during the afternoon, and Miss Remsen was delighted with her. Expecting a talkative, intrusive person, assuming Frenchified mannerisms, she was surprised to find a quiet, unpretentious creature, who immediately showed herself to be well acquainted with the duties required of her. Within the first 24 hours she found herself so much better served than by her absent maid, that she almost wished that the mother would require her for a long time. Dora, too, was charmed with Lucette.

"Queen," said she the next afternoon, "what do you think of your new maid?" "Who? Lucette?" answered the sister. "Oh, I think she does very well."

"Does very well? Why, Queen, she is a jewel. If you do not appreciate her, I wish you would bequeath her to me when Sarah returns."

"Oh, ho! So my young miss wants a maid to herself, does she?" "Oh, no, not especially, but I want to keep Lucette in the family. She is a treasure. Dressing the hair is not her only accomplishment, either, though I never saw yours. Look more beautiful. She has just arranged the table for our afternoon tea, and I never saw anything like it. It is just wonderful what that girl can do with a napkin in the way of decoration."

"Oh, yes," said Emily, "Lucette is clever, but don't let her know that we think so. It might make her less valuable. Now tell me, Dora, dear, who is coming this afternoon?"

"Oh! The usual crush, I suppose." "Including Mr. Randolph?"

"Queen, there is a mystery about him. Let me tell you. In the first place, he has not been here for over a week, and then yesterday I saw him coming down Fifth avenue, and—would you believe it?—just as I was about to bow to him he turned down a side street."

"He did not see you, my dear, or he surely would have spoken. He would have been too glad."

"Well, if he did not see me, he must have suddenly contracted 'near-sightedness'; that is all I have to say."

Shortly after company began to arrive, and very soon the rooms were filled by a crowd which is aptly described by the term used by Dora. One goes to these affairs partly from duty and partly from habit. One leaves mainly from the instinctive sense of self preservation inherent in all.

Dora was besieged by a number of admirers and took pleasure in avoiding Mr. Randolph, who was assiduous in his attentions. He seemed anxious to get her off into the seclusion of a corner, a scheme which the young lady frustrated without appearing to do so.

Mr. Thaurer was also present, though he did not remain very long. He chatted a short time with Emily on conventional subjects, and then worked his way to the side of Dora, where he lingered longer. He said several pretty things to her, such as she had heard already in different forms from other men, but with just a tone which seemed to indicate that he spoke from his heart rather than from the mere passing fancy of pleasing. It was very skillfully done. There was so little of it that no one, certainly not an inexperienced girl like Dora, could suspect that it was all studied. Yet after he had gone, and the company was thinning out, Mr. Randolph found his long sought opportunity, and sat down for a tete-a-tete with Dora. He began at once.

"Miss Dora, why do you allow a cad like that Frenchman to make love to you?"

"Are you alluding to my friend, Mr. Thaurer? He accentuated the word 'friend' merely to exasperate Mr. Randolph, and succeeded admirably."

"He is not your friend. In my opinion he is nobody's friend but his own."

"That has been said of so many that it is no new idea."

"But do be serious, Miss Dora. You must not allow this fellow to worm his way into your circle, and, more than all, you must not allow him to make love to you."

"You surprise me, Mr. Randolph. I had no idea that Mr. Thaurer was making love to me. I could relate everything that he said, and it would scarcely bear out your assumption."

"That is only his cunning. He is too shrewd to speak plainly so soon."

And yet this young philosopher was not wise enough to see that he was damaging his own cause by putting ideas into the girl's mind which had not yet entered there.

"Why, Mr. Randolph, you are really becoming amusing. You are like Don Quixote fighting windmills. You imagine a condition, and then give me a warning. It is entirely unnecessary, I assure you. Mr. Thaurer was not acting in any such way as you impute to him."

"You are not angry with me, I hope. You know what prompted me to speak?" "No, I fear I am not so clever as you at reading other people's motives."

"But surely you must have guessed that?" "Guessed what?" Dora looked at him so candidly that he was abashed. It was his opportunity to declare himself, and he might have done so had not Mr. Mitchell entered the room at that moment. Seeing him, Mr. Randolph thought of the peculiar position he would be in if his friend should be proved to be a criminal. For this reason he hesitated, and thus lost a chance which did not recur again for a very long time. He replied in a jesting tone, and soon after left the house.

The company had departed. Dora had gone to her own room, leaving Mr. Mitchell and Emily alone together.

"Emily, my Queen," said Mr. Mitchell, taking one of her hands carelessly within both of his, as they sat upon a tete-a-tete sofa, "I almost believe that I am dreaming when I think that you love me."

"Listen, little woman, I am in an odd mood tonight, and I wish very much to talk to you. May I?"

For answer she touched him lightly, lovingly, on the face with her disengaged hand and bowed assent.

"Then listen while I make my confession. I am different from other men, much as I count you different from all women. I have met many, in all the capitals of Europe, and here in my own country. I have never been affected by any as I was by you. In the first instant of meeting you I had chosen you for my wife. When I asked for you, I had not the least idea that you would refuse until, having spoken, I saw the bold audacity of my words, and for half an instant the idea lived with me that I was too presumptuous."

"You were not, my Roy. Like you, I have passed lovers by as unheeded as by the ocean breezes. When I met you, I said to myself, 'This is my master.'"

INTERIOR PORTFOLIO GOES TO JAMES R. GARFIELD.

MOODY WILL BE JUSTICE

President Announces Appointment of Attorney General to the Supreme Bench to Succeed Justice Henry Billings Brown.

Washington, Nov. 8.—Secretary of the Interior, Ethan Allen Hitchcock, will retire from President Roosevelt's cabinet on the 4th of next March, and James R. Garfield, of Ohio, at present commissioner of corporations, will succeed him. Herbert Knox Smith, now assistant commissioner of corporations, will be appointed to Mr. Garfield's place. These changes and that of the retirement of Commissioner Richards of the general land office on March 4 were announced in the following statement from the White House Wednesday:

The secretary of the interior, Mr. Hitchcock, has informed the president that he would be unable to stay after March 4. Mr. Hitchcock has for some time felt that the very exhausting work he has been engaged in for over eight years in the interior department was wearing on him so as to make it impossible for him much longer to remain. At the president's earnest request he consented to accept a reappointment on March 4, 1905, at the time of the president's inauguration. But he then stated that he could not say how long he could stay, and he feels now he must insist on being relieved after March 4.

Declines Foreign Post.
The president urged him to accept the ambassadorship to France, but Mr. Hitchcock feels that he is entitled to absolute rest and was obliged to refuse the offer. The president went carefully over with Mr. Hitchcock the choice of a successor who could be depended upon to carry on with absolute fidelity the present policies of the department, and agreed with Mr. Hitchcock that the best man to carry on the exceedingly onerous, difficult and responsible work of the department was Mr. James R. Garfield, at present commissioner of corporations. Mr. Garfield has accordingly been notified that he will be appointed on March 4, when Mr. Hitchcock retires.

Land Commissioner Resigns.
Commissioner Richards has informed the president that in accordance with his intention, expressed to Secretary Hitchcock last May, he will resign his resignation to be effective March 4. This will complete eight years of service in the land office, four years as assistant commissioner, and four years as commissioner. His successor has not yet been determined upon.

The assistant commissioner of corporations, Mr. Herbert Knox Smith, will succeed Mr. Garfield as commissioner of corporations.

Mr. Smith has filled the position of assistant commissioner of corporations since August 15, 1903. He was appointed from Connecticut.

Moody to Be Supreme Justice.
The president Wednesday announced the appointment of Attorney General William Henry Moody, of Massachusetts, as justice of the supreme court of the United States, to succeed Justice Henry Billings Brown, who retired some time ago. Mr. Moody has filled the office of attorney general since July 1, 1904. Previous to that time he had served for more than two years as secretary of the navy. He had also represented his state in the fifty-fourth, fifty-fifth, fifty-sixth and fifty-seventh congresses. It is generally expected that Mr. Moody will retire from the department of justice the latter part of December.

CATCHES DEER AND TROUT.
Fisherman Breaks the Record for One Line in a Day's Sport.

To kill a deer and catch a trout at the same time out-Nimrod and out-Isaacs Walton. A fisherman has just done the trick on the Arrow lakes, says the Toronto Globe. The deer weighed 290 pounds and the trout ten. The fisherman was trolling for trout when several deer swam past his boat. One was an old buck and the man managed to catch hold of him as he was going by.

Having no gun, he tried to kill the animal with a claspknife. The buck objected so strenuously that he got away, swimming off with the fishing line upon his horns. The fisherman bailed out his boat and started in pursuit. After two hours' rowing he caught up with the deer and with oars and knife succeeded in slaying it. While the chase was proceeding a big trout got on the hook and after the deer was safely landed the fish was secured. It is quite a common occurrence to see deer swimming in the lakes of British Columbia, but to capture one and a trout at the same time is infrequent.

Janesville Citizens Gladly Testify and Confidently Recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

It is testimony like the following that has placed Doan's Kidney Pills so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Janesville citizen:

"Mrs. J. J. Doran, of Lion St., Janesville, Wis., says: 'Doan's Kidney Pills have been used in our family with very satisfactory results, and it never failed to cure pain in the back, weakness of the loins, or other symptoms of kidney troubles. We have not only used them at home but I know of several other residents of this city who have tested this remedy and always with the same satisfaction. I do not hesitate to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as an entirely reliable remedy for backache and kidney troubles.'

Many remedies tried to Cure Eczema None succeeded except D. D. D. Prescription

Winona, Minn., March 24, 1906.
The D. D. D. Co., Chicago, Ill.
Gentlemen: For several years my son was troubled with Eczema and had tried almost every remedy but never found one that would cure him till your preparation was tried. It is about ten months since I secured a bottle of the drug and used it. I do not recall the name of the one bottle of the preparation as it gave him permanent relief. I do not feel it recommended to all who are afflicted with Eczema. Sincerely yours, W. F. SHELDON.

We have thousands of these testimonial letters which come to us unsolicited and, if we could but lay them before you, your suffering from Eczema would end for your cure depends only upon our convincing you of the wonderful merits of D. D. D.

CONTEST IS CLOSE FOR SECOND PLACE

FULL COUNT NEEDED TO DECIDE IN NEW YORK.

LEAGUE-MAKING CLAIMS

Allegation is Made That Threats Were Resorted to in Order to Induce Election Boards to Perform Their Duties.

New York, Nov. 8.—At midnight Wednesday night there was still doubt as to who is elected lieutenant governor of New York. Sixteen counties had not reported the official count at that hour, but on the face of the figures in hand at that hour the result seemed to favor Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler on the Democratic-Independence league ticket. Whatever the result may be the figures will be close and until complete official returns shall have been made by all counties now missing, it will be impossible to do more than to guess at the winner. The total vote for the state, so far as returned, including the Democratic stronghold of the city of Greater New York for lieutenant governor, is Chanler, 604,234; Bruce, 519,479.

It appears that outside of the candidates for governor, and possibly for lieutenant governor, the Democratic ticket is elected.

In Greater New York Chanler's majority over Bruce is 134,941, and this big lead Bruce must overcome in the upstate counties. Among the missing counties is Westchester, which gave Hughes 8,000 plurality.

Republican state headquarters, while expressing the belief that Bruce would pull out ahead of Chanler, would give no figures. "On looking over returns from some forty odd counties we find that Mr. Bruce has run ahead of Mr. Hughes by 600 votes and I believe he is elected. At the present time I do not care to give any opinion regarding the rest of the ticket."

Say Hearst Vote Wasn't Counted.

At the headquarters of the Independence league Wednesday night, the following statement was issued:

"Reports from up-state indicate not only that Mr. Hearst cut down the Republican vote materially, but that the Independence league vote for Mr. Hearst was not counted in many counties. These votes will have to be added to the announced result of Mr. Hearst's vote in order to give the correct Hearst figure in the state."

Forced Board to Act

"Tuesday night Capt. William Astor Chanler, stated that his brother, Robert, who was running for sheriff in Dutchess county, had threatened to bring mandamus proceedings against several election boards before they consented to count the Independence league vote for Mr. Hearst. Wednesday other reports were received indicating that Independence league votes for Mr. Hearst were not counted in Erie and Allegheny counties. Reports come in also showing that in districts in Clinton, Cattaraugus, Herkimer, Wayne, Albany, Onondaga and Washington counties there was a failure on the part of the election boards to count the vote for Mr. Hearst which was cast under the scales."

Explains Small Vote.

"The facts developed Wednesday explain the great falling off of the total vote cast Tuesday as compared with the total vote cast two years ago. There is no doubt that the votes represented by this falling off were the votes cast for Mr. Hearst and his associates under the emblem of the scales. In 1904 the total vote cast for governor was 1,625,907. This year with 63 election districts missing only 1,378,450 votes are accounted for, although the registration this year was unusually heavy and the weather conditions and the interest taken in the campaign all tended to bring out a full vote."

Statement by Mr. Hughes.

Gov.-elect Charles E. Hughes gave out the following statement: "It is a victory for sobriety and for decency in the administration of government. But the people will not tolerate indifference to public wrongs. They desire neither exaggeration nor inflammatory appeal on the one hand nor moral or political obtuseness on the other hand. The election is a rebuke to demagogical methods and it is also impressive in its demands for responsible leadership. I shall address myself to the task of squaring the administration of government with the interests of the people, confident that I may rely upon the support of all good citizens, not only those who voted for me, but also those who, in the intensity of their desire to end abuses, voted for my opponent. To work the in-suring, to the extent of my power, the just administration of the government of this state I shall devote myself unreservedly."

Will Take a Rest.

"While perfectly well, I am very weary from the labors of the campaign and I want a few days of perfect quiet. For this reason I am going to the mountains for a little outdoor life and undisturbed rest. There is nothing of political significance in the trip; it is simply to get a good breath of fresh air. When I return I shall close up my business affairs and at once prepare for the important duties to which the people have assigned me."

RESULTS IN VARIOUS STATES

CLAIMS AND COUNTER CLAIMS OF PARTY LEADERS.

Congressman McCleary, of Minnesota, Concedes Election of His Democratic Opponent.

Chicago, Nov. 8.—Plurality on the Republican state ticket on late returns are estimated at 140,000.

A feature of the state canvass was the fight put up by the prohibitionists for their candidate for state treasurer, William F. Allen, of McLean county. Alonzo E. Wilson, chairman of the Republican state organization, predicts that Allen's vote may reach 175,000 and declares that he has received the largest vote in the state ever given a cold water candidate.

The Socialists fell by the wayside, losing both their members of the legislature, Representative J. A. Ambrose, in the Fourth district, and Andrew Olson, in the Ninth district, being defeated.

The line-up in the general assembly shows 44 Republicans in the senate and seven Democrats. In the house will be 58 Republicans, 61 Democrats and four prohibitionists.

Indiana.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 8.—According to the latest returns, received throughout the state, Indiana went about 30,000 Republican in Tuesday's election. The Democrats gained two congressmen, one from the Eighth and one from the Eleventh districts. The latest returns partly official and unofficial complete show that the Republicans carried nine congressmen and the Democrats four. Congressman John C. Chaney, Republican, in the Second district, has a plurality of about 350. The Twelfth district shows Clarence C. Gilhams, Republican, elected with a plurality of about 300. The Thirteenth district elected Congressman Abraham L. Brick, Republican, by a plurality of 255. These were the three districts in doubt. The legislature will be Republican on joint ballot by about 30.

McCleary Admits Defeat.

Mankato, Minn., Nov. 8.—Congressman McCleary conceded his defeat by W. S. Hammond, of St. James, the Democratic candidate for congress in the Second district.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 8.—Returns in Iowa are still incomplete, but there is every reason to believe that Cummins will receive at least 20,000 plurality over Porter, Democrat. The early returns received on election night were discouraging to the Republican managers, but they came from unfavorable districts. Later reports increased Cummins' lead. The Republican state committee Wednesday night confidently expects a 25,000 plurality and the Democrats concede 5,000.

Two of Iowa's congressmen will be Democrat—Tracy, in the First district and Hamilton, in the Sixth. The next legislature will be Republican. It is certain that the Republicans will have a majority of at least 30 on joint ballot and this insures the reelection of Jonathan P. Dolliver.

North Dakota.

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 8.—We concede the defeat of Gov. Slesby by Mr. Burke, his Democratic opponent by a probable plurality of 2,000," said Chairman L. B. Hanna, of the Republican state central committee. "We also concede the defeat of John Knauf, our candidate for judge of the supreme court, by Judge Fisk on the Democratic ticket, by 6,000. We are confident that the rest of the Republican ticket has been elected."

Oklahoma.

Guthrie, Okla., Nov. 8.—According to the latest official count in the election of constitutional delegates the Democrats will have at least 98 representatives in the convention out of the possible 112, 49 from each territory. Republicans are assured of only ten delegates, five from Oklahoma and five from Indian territory.

Democratic Mayor for Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 8.—With the two o'clock count complete and 100 precincts complete out of 143 on the 8:30 count, William B. Thompson, Democrat, for mayor, had 29,104 votes and George P. Codd, Republican, 27,321. On the strength of this lead of 1,783 for Thompson, the Detroit Journal, which has been supporting Codd, concedes the present mayor's defeat by 2,000.

South Dakota.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 8.—Returns from 39 of the 52 counties in the state give Crawford, Republican, for governor, and the state ticket a majority of 25,750. Republicans have elected 113 members of the legislature; Democrats 17.

Missouri.

St. Louis, Nov. 8.—From nearly complete returns from all counties, the Democrats have carried the state by a plurality of 7,640, electing all candidates on the state ticket and 12 out of the 16 congressmen.

Virginia.

Richmond, Nov. 8.—Additional returns confirm Tuesday night's reports. The Democrats carried all the districts except the Ninth, in which Sloop, Republican, is reelected by a reduced majority.

Kansas.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 8.—Republicans claim a lead of 3,000 votes on governor with 12 counties still out. Democrats claim a lead of less than 1,000 for Harris, with 16 counties out.

New Mexico.

Albuquerque, N. M., Nov. 8.—Fairly complete returns from 25 counties give statehood a majority of 5,900. This majority may be increased somewhat by later returns.

HAVE MADE READY TO DEFEAT THE ILLINOIS

Wisconsin is Nerved to the Extreme for the Coming Football Game.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., Nov. 8.—Wisconsin has completed its preparation for the intercollegiate football game with Illinois at Urbana Saturday, and the badgers will leave Madison tomorrow morning in a special car, accompanied by a few rooters, to be followed tomorrow night by some 200 more. The efforts of Manager Hibbard to have a thousand Wisconsin partisans at the game have not been successful. Head Coach C. P. Hutchins declared that he expected the badgers to win by a comfortable score, but would not venture to mention figures. Dr. Charles McCarthy, whose new shift plays and other stunts are to be relied upon largely, says he is gratified with the way the Wisconsin fellows have improved in speed and spirit, and in their ability to take advantage of the numerous unexpected opportunities that the game as now revised offers more than ever before. He lays great stress on the importance of this feature in a team, placing upon it more emphasis than upon the matter of avoidouts. The secret practices of this week have been devoted almost entirely to the working out of new formations for Illinois and to the development of the kicking ability of Messner and Clark. The kicking game worked so effectively against Iowa last Saturday that it will be religiously played against Illinois. It seemed to tire the hawk eyes, out, and while they were able to give Wisconsin as good as sent during the first part, they did not seem to have the necessary physical endurance to keep it up. It is expected that the same will be true of the Illinois Messner has dropped, "sailing the past" week in a scrimmage with the freshmen he successfully placed two drops over the bar in quick succession. When Illinois suffers the badgers to get the ball in fair position in front of the goal posts, they may expect a try for score from the field through the art of Messner. Coach Hutchins has avoided giving out any suggestion thus far as to the line-up against Illinois, but from the way the men played in practice the last two days, it is probable that this will be the arrangement:

Left end, Rogers; left tackle, Dittman or Johnson; left guard, Captain Gelbach; center, Stehm; right guard, Bleyer; right tackle, Messner; right end, Frank; left halfback, Clark; right halfback, Curtis or Zelsler; quarterback, Springer; fullback, Miller or Howard. Students will give the team a rousing send-off at the train tomorrow.

OLD CLOTHES HAVE CHARMS.

Comfort Not the Only Thing That Endears Them to Wearers.

Many men have a weakness for their old suits. And truly about some clothes there is an indescribable something—one might call it sympathy—which endears them to us. "I have an old suit," said a gentleman who is a sentimentalist on this point, "that whatever mood I may be in, always makes me feel happy and prosperous when I put it on. It is like a part of myself. It is too old and shabby to wear out of doors, except in winter, when I conceal it with a long overcoat. I can't explain my affection for it. The fact that it is the most entirely comfortable of all my clothes is only part of the reason."

"I know many other men who have their favorite suits of old clothes. They are always old suits, and that suggests the some garments may, in time, absorb some subtle magnetic quality from their wearers—something that renders them specially congenial."

RIFLING AN EAGLE NEST.

It is a Pretty Hard and Very Dangerous Act.

An Alpine hunter named Hess, living at Engleberg, in the Unterwald Canton, has had a dramatic adventure with eagles. A pair had built their eagle in the cliffs about 800 yards above the valley, and it contained two eaglets, of which Hess determined to possess himself.

The climb was so difficult and dangerous that he had to leave his gun behind him, taking only a staff tipped with iron. As he approached the eagle the two parent eagles attacked him with great fury, and the hunter had a severe fight, with his staff as his only weapon, the risk of his being hurled to the bottom of the cliffs being very great.

Hess received many cruel scars, but he at last succeeded in disabling the male bird, and then, driving off the mother, secured the eaglets.

Death of French Banker.

Paris, June 25.—Alexandre, Weill, one of the principal members of the firm of Lazard Freres, bankers, died Sunday.

Unclaimed Money in England.

In England there is no legal provision for unclaimed bank accounts, as there is in this country and in France, where the law requires that every five years all banking institutions shall publish the names and last known addresses of owners of dormant or unclaimed accounts. It has been estimated that in chancery the bank of England and the thousands of private banks there is a total sum of over $12,000,000 unclaimed.

TEST FOR SPURIOUS COINS.

At this session of the central criminal court there has been an exceptional number of charges of making and uttering counterfeit coin, says the London Tribune. At the conclusion of one of the cases the foreman of the jury asked the authorities if they would take a suggestion from 12 business men who during the year had to deal with considerable sums in silver coin.

There was a most simple test for the detection of base coin. It was to cut the milled edge of a good coin sharply against the milled edge of the suspected coin. If the suspected coin were a spurious one the metal would almost immediately begin to shave off. It was added, a test that could be carried out anywhere, on the top of a bus or in a shop, and the public ought to be acquainted with it.

After making a personal test the common sergeant said he quite agreed with the suggestion of the jury as to the usefulness of the test and said it ought to be made known.

GREELEY AS A POSEUR.

Great Editor Was Prone to Harmless Affectation.

There was a great deal of innocence in Horace Greeley as well as not a little affectation. He was rarely seen without one trousers' leg carelessly caught in the upper part of his boot, and a necktie with a bow under his ear. Once in the public room of a hotel a friend of Greeley's kindly pulled down the disarranged trousers leg and straightened the necktie. Greeley thanked him and soon after left the room. When in the course of half an hour he appeared in the street the trousers' leg and the necktie had been carefully disarranged, and the man looked as negligent of things earthly as he always looked. It was part of his pose as a man of genius to wear his trousers' leg and his necktie as if he had put them on in a hurry while absorbed in meditation. It was a harmless eccentricity.

Worm Deserved Its Fate.

Miss Marie Shedlock is famous for the invention of a new and delightful type of children's entertainment. Dressed as a fairy, Miss Shedlock recounts to children with delicacy and power the lovely tales of Hans Andersen. She keeps her wits about her in her entertainments, and children, no matter how odd their questions may be, can never stump her. She is always ready with an apt reply.

Entertaining a children's party at a certain millionaire's house in New York, Miss Shedlock happened to employ the old proverb: "The early bird catches the worm." A little boy questioned the proverb promptly.

"But wasn't the worm foolish," he asked, "to get up early and be caught?"

"My dear," said Miss Shedlock, "that worm hadn't been to bed at all. He was just getting home."

Prof. Eliot Was Obliging.

President Eliot of Harvard is no believer in the Rooseveltian spelling reform. A young student was a candidate for the degree of doctor of philosophy. This man adopted spelling reform as his particular line of work, and as commencement day drew near he went to President Eliot with a request. "You know, Mr. President," he said, "that you are proposing to make me a Ph.D. Now, I have made a specialty of spelling reform, and I always spell philosophy with an 'i.' I therefore called to ask you if you could not make my degree F. D. instead of Ph.D." "Certainly, my dear," replied the president of Harvard. "In fact, if you insist, we shall make it a D. F."

Jackdaw as Companion.

There is a tame Jackdaw at Workingham, England, which has acquired so much intelligence as to accompany its master, a baker, on his delivery rounds. Occasionally it flies to a house or tree top, regaining with a long swoop the cart as the horse trots along the road. The bird and its master are on the best of terms, and a whistle from the latter brings the Jackdaw back to the cart from a considerable distance, invariably with a caw of satisfaction.

Trepoff Fairly Warned.

Some 18 months ago Gen. Trepoff received the following letter on his return to St. Petersburg, after having attended the funeral of the Grand Duke Sergius: "Monsieur: We regret that you were put to so much trouble in devising a means of escaping from Moscow without being killed. We desire to make your mind easy on this score. You have nothing to fear in the streets or in theaters, or in any of the public places. You will simply be killed in your own bed-room."

"Beastly" Joke.

Lord Beaconsfield often met with bitter political hostility in his private capacity. One day, walking about his country place in the easy coat and general careless attire he liked among his farmers, he encountered two women, strong partisans of Gladstone. Supposing him to be the keeper or gardener or something of that sort, they inquired if he would show them over the place, which he at once undertook to do. While they were walking about they overwhelmed him with questions of the master of the manor, and one of them finally said: "Do you think you could manage to get us a sight of the old beast, himself?" "Madam," said Lord Beaconsfield, "the old beast has the honor to wait upon you now."
